Message

I am happy to know that Uttara University is going to hold its 3rd Convocation on 19 November 2014. On this occasion, I congratulate the graduating students, their guardians, faculty members and the university authority.

Our government has been striving hard to establish Bangladesh as an illiteracy- free, progressive and democratic country by 2021, the Golden Jubilee year of our independence. However, to achieve this goal Bangladesh needs to be transformed into a knowledge-based society.

This is why our government has given the topmost priority to education. We have adopted a modern, scientific and time-befitting Education Policy and enacted Private University Act to ensure quality education. Private universities have become an integral part of government's effort to ensure higher education and build a knowledge-based society.

I hope the outgoing graduates of this university will be able to face the challenges of the 21st century and build a prosperous "Sonar Bangla" as dreamt by the greatest Bangalee of all time, the Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

I wish the third convocation of Uttara University a grand success.

Message

I am happy to learn that Uttara University is holding its Third Convocation on 19th November 2014. On this celebratory occasion, I congratulate all the graduates for achieving this long-sought for milestone in their academic life. I would also like to congratulate all the guardians for the sacrifice they have made to ensure proper education for their wards. I am sure their expectation and sacrifice will not go in vain and the future will justify the investments they made for the higher education of the young ones. I also congratulate the teachers whose efforts made this day happen.

The graduates have worked hard to reach this day and they certainly deserve to celebrate. With this ceremony, they begin their professional careers and new chapters of their lives. Bangladesh needs many more talented and dedicated graduates to lead the country on to the path of shared prosperity and the dream of Sonar Bangla, so endearingly envisioned by the father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman.

You are entering an era of momentous changes where knowledge, skills, innovation and creativity will make all the differences. I am confident the new graduates will seize the opportunities of the brave new world and contribute their mite for Bangladesh.

In this backdrop, the role of universities is of paramount importance. I am delighted to learn that Uttara University, as one of the leading private universities of Bangladesh, has played a commendable role for the expansion of affordable higher education. In a country like Bangladesh where only small percentage of graduates qualify for admission to public universities, the need for the private sector participation can hardly be stressed upon. I hope the Uttara University will excel as a learning center for higher education.

I sincerely wish the graduates of Uttara University all the best in the future.
